Report of Superintendent of Schools

The customary report of the Superintendent is expected at this season of the year. Most citizens are vitally interested in the public school. Some on account of the expense, others because their children are now in attendance. Those whose children are being educated are rightly zealous for the advancement of their education and to them mere matters of expense seem unimportant. To those who have none of the family to attend the schools or whose children have already finished their education, the expense of helping to pay school bills seems a constant burden. This matter of school expense has been worked over and over again by so many communities of people in the State of New Hampshire and in fact in every other that it has become as firmly established as the government itself that the growing generation must be well educated in order to fill the vacant places of those who have been useful and self-supporting citizens but who have now passed on.

We find that we must have the materials for education; teachers, supplies, buildings in good repair, necessary transportation, and school officials actually needed to carry on. The tuition bill is also a constantly increasing factor as the interest of the state as a whole demands that pupils residing in towns where there is no high school shall at least have their tuition paid at other high schools.

A glance at the financial report will show that this item of expense is a large one for a town not large in valuation of property.

For the teaching force that the town enjoys, the expense is not large, when compared with other communities in the state. We have to have excellent teachers for the pupils to get on well and it spoils the entire game of education to be willing to accept inferior teachers. With inferior teachers any school system will fail. New Hampshire has striven for years to put into the field well trained teachers and she has succeeded in filling practically every school no matter where located, with normal trained teachers selected from the best material that the high schools turn out.

It is an impossibility to run any kind of business with cheap help. If the people have good schools and want good schools they must pay. Teachers in Stewartstown are not over paid.

Following is a list of schools, teachers, registration and salary:

West Stewartstown Grammar, Mrs. Ethel R. Wheeler, 17, $1,000.00; West Stewartstown Intermediate, Miss Edith Woolson, 35, $900.00; West Stewartstown Primary, Mrs. Clara Harvey, 38, $850.00; Bare Rock, all grades, Ralph B. Linton, 19, $900.00; South Hill, all grades, Miss Minetta Tibbetts, 14, $850.00; Cedar Brook, all grades, Miss Kathryn G. Driscoll, 12, $900; North Hill, all grades, Miss Frances Veigue, 15, $900; Hollow, all grades, Miss Ceora Stillings, 13, $900...

All the buildings seem to be in good repair, the toilets are in good shape, the stoves are good effective heaters the oil burning plant seems to work well, most of the buildings are banked for the winter and some are furnished with double windows. All these matters help the attendance by keeping the pupils comfortable while seated indoors, and thus preventing sickness.

We have had little sickness on the whole during the year. The attendance, too, in many schools, has been excellent.

A parent is not doing his duty who does not get his children ready on time each and every day of the school year for school. We all are aware that it is no small job to keep children clean, healthy, and well fed and ready on time for school, but when the children are fortunate enough to just step out of the house into the bus for school and be brought back to the door of their own home after school, there should be no lame duck alibis and excuses for children being out of school a single day. Such children attending irregularly do not receive the advantages that they are entitled to and that the parents owe their children. They also keep their own classes back and are never rightly prepared to be promoted with the rest of their class.

They are also a constant care and expense for the truant officer.

On the other hand boys and girls who are always present receive benefits and an education many times more valuable than those who are there one day and out perhaps the next two. The latter are not being really well educated at all for they are made to feel that dilatory habits are admissible when every successful pupil knows they are not.

I can assure the citizens of Stewartstown that they have a live, active, interested and efficient School Board and truant officers and we should all be deeply grateful for their services and interest.

It has been hard sometimes to get to the schools on account of the snow, but after considerable exertion to arrive at a school, to find every pupil in his seat, snow or no snow, gives us all courage to carry on and makes us feel that the whole business is worth while.

Thank you,

ARTHUR D. WIGGIN,
